

WILLIS C. PAINE

Funeral services for Willis C. Paine were held from the Baptist Church in Bar Harbor on Sunday afternoon. The church choir sang and the Rev. Barks R. Robinson, pastor of the church, officiated. There was a very large attendance and many beautiful flowers. Burial was in the Paine lot in Ledgelawn avenue cemetery. The bearers were Howe Smith, Shirley Thompson, Chauncey McFarland, Walter Russell, George Fogg and Fred Gray. The committal service was that of the Masonic order, under the direction of a large delegation of brother Masons.

Mr. Paine died at his home in Hulls Cove Friday evening and though he had been ill for some time, having the day before returned from the hospital, his death was unexpected. The death of Willis Paine marks the passing of a highly respected citizen, a man liked by all who knew him. He was born in the Emery District on Mount Desert Island, the son of the late Richard and Sophia Emery Paine. He married 35 years ago, Miss Martha Moore, a native of Gouldsboro, who survives him as do two sons, and three daughters. The sons are Harold and Richmond of Bar Harbor and the daughters are Mrs. Florence Swartz of Oregon City, Oregon, Mrs. Newell Emery and Miss Helen Paine of Bar Harbor. The grandchildren are Marguerite, Marjorie and Mary Schwartz of Bar Harbor, Doris and Newell Emery of Bar Harbor. A brother, Edgar Paine, of Bar Harbor also survives. Mr. Paine was a life-long resident of the Island, a member of Bar Harbor Lodge, F. And A. M., and of the Bar Harbor Baptist church. He will be missed and sincerely mourned.
